HEIRS SECURE RENTS*SUPREME COURT OPINION ON LAZARUS SALE

Judge Gear Sustained in Cockett vs. Kapiolani Estate—Amended Bill in McCully Tract Case—Verdict Ordered.

Justice Gallarita is author of an opinion by the Supreme Court reversing a decision by Judge Gear in a partition suit among the Lazarus heirs, Henry Smith, guardian, appealed from an order allowing rents accruing between a sale and its confirmation to go to the purchaser. The appeal is sustained, the court above holding that the rents are payable to the heirs. No interest had been charged to the purchaser on the balance for the period between the sale and delivery of deed.

Justice Perry writes the opinion of the court, confirming the decree of Judge Gear by holding the statute of limitations as running against the suit of Sister Albertina, trustee for Stella K. Cockett, against the Kapiolani Estate and others.

Judge Robinson has overruled the plea in bar of defendant in the case of J. D. Paris vs. J. A. Magoon, administrator of the estate of A. Fernandez, deceased. In the life of Fernandez, Judge Perry, then on the Circuit Court bench, decreed the performance of a contract regarding leases but not the cattle on the land. The Supreme Court set aside the decree on the ground that the two parts of the contract could not be separated. A new trial before Judge Humphreys resulted in a mistrial. On the coming up of the case again, it was assigned to Judge Robinson. His decision now holds that the Supreme Court's decision did not settle the question of damages.

Judge Humphreys directed a verdict for defendant in the suit of Keoni Ahu Puka, an aged native woman, against Lot K. C. Lane, claiming $2500 for sustenance in return for a deed of land.

Thomas Fitch, attorney, has petitioned for a refund of $136.50 advanced to Kalua Kapukini, spendthrift.

Judge Robinson sustained the demurrer, giving plaintiff ten days to amend his bill, in the suit of J. M. McChesney against Waikiki Land & Loan Association and Geo. H. Paris. An amended bill was filed straightway, alleging that Paris wrongfully retained $20,000 of the McCully tract purchase money and that, holding a majority of the stock, he prevents a meeting of the Association.

Frank C. Faxon, J. S. Fox and M. T. Munton have been appointed appraisers of the estate of George S. Houghtaling.

PRIME ON THEOSOPHY

Last night in Arion hall John Prime, the well known Theosophist, who has been visiting in this city for the past few weeks, gave an interesting lecture on various phases of theosophy and also answered numerous questions on this subject directed to him by the audience. Mrs. Hendricks, the president of the Aloha Branch of the Theosophical Society, introduced Mr. Prime, at the same time announcing that the subject of the lecture to be held next Thursday night would be "The Sign of the Cross." During the course of the evening Mr. Prime answered such questions as "What is Karma?" "How do Theosophists regard the Apostles?" and the Nicene Creed of the Episcopal Church? "What is Theosophy?" etc.

Most of the questions asked Mr. Prime answered on the spot before the audience, while to others he reserved the answers, in the belief that the explanations would be to better advantage if given to the questioners privately.

NORMAL SCHOOL WORK

During the whole of the past week the summer school of the Honolulu Normal and Training school has been in session. The session will end on August 22, lasting seven weeks altogether. The teaching corps of the summer school is composed of Prof. Edgar Wood, Carrie M. Pierce, J. D. Bicknell, Minnie Churchill, Lilla G. Marshall, C. A. Macdonald, Nina J. Adams, Sam R. Dowdle, Luck Adams and Elizabeth Ahia.

The principal branches taught are the theory and art of teaching, algebra, geometry, English literature, arithmetic, geography, manual and physical training, drawing, music, face work, nature study and physiology.

At the end of the session a teachers' examination will be held in such subjects as hygiene and physiology while credit marks will be given for the work in music and drawing.

PRESENT TO LAKE.

On Wednesday last, Manager Lake of the Hawaiian hotel was given quite a surprise by the employees of that hostelry. Upon opening his desk in the afternoon, he found a small box with a letter. In the box was a handsome gold ring containing a diamond. The letter explained that the ring was a present from the employees. He thanked Mr. Lake for the kindness he had shown each and all of the men under him during the time he had been manager of the hotel and expressed the hope that after leaving here, he would continue to roll in prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Lake expect to leave Honolulu for the Coast some time in August.

"There is nothing more unwise," said the friend, "than a needless and ostentatious display of wealth."

"That's right," answered Mr. Gripper Sorghum; "there are enough people trying to get it away from you without issuing any challenges."—Washington Star.
